

I am adamantly opposed to cross-over of TV, radio, and newspaper ownership. This will reduce the news getting to the public. It is bad enough when all the papers in a city are owned by the same corporation. If cross-over is allowed, cities and towns will be without much of the important news, as it can and will be filtered out due to the opinions of the owners.